SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

Code IJOC-R Issued 6/07

Definition

Volunteers are persons who work at school sites or at school-sponsored activities without compensation or employee benefits of any kind. They support district instructional programs and activities by assisting employees in providing individualization and enrichment of instruction and by strengthening school/community relations.

The board expects the administration to appropriately screen volunteers to assure the safety of the students. Approval of volunteers will be done by the principal.

Volunteers will be under the immediate supervision and direction of a certified person when assisting in an instructional setting. They will be under the supervision of appropriate approved personnel when assisting in a non-instructional setting.

Use of volunteers within the district is not to conflict with or replace any regularly authorized personnel position.

Volunteers are expected to comply with all rules and regulations set forth by the district.

Procedures

- All volunteers must submit a volunteer application which includes the requirement of a background check by the district.
- Schools will thoroughly orient volunteers to the duties they are to perform. District consultants and supervisors may help with this whenever applicable.
- The school will give all volunteers some acquaintance with the overall operation of the school, including what the school expects of all persons who work with it.
- All volunteers are under the direct supervision of and accountable to the principal or his/her designee.
- No one will give volunteers the authority to have access to student records. Volunteers may only see those records that pertain to their own children in compliance with policy JRA and administrative rule JRA-R.
- The school principal will make periodic assessments to ensure that the volunteers are working productively with students.
- Volunteers are helpers only. The direction of students, particularly in strictly teaching areas, is the responsibility of the teacher and cannot be turned over to a volunteer.
- Health room volunteers are to work under the supervision of the school principal or his/her designee. Volunteers will follow district policy concerning first aid and emergency care.

APPLICANT TO KEEP THIS SUMMARY OF RIGHTS

Para informacion en espanol, visite www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore o escribe a la Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G. Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

APPLICANT TO KEEP THIS SUMMARY OF RIGHTS

- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.
